
DRESS & GROOMING STANDARDS

PHILOSOPHY:

Almost all PCC renters, vendors and subcontractors have some contact with PCC guests and therefore represent the Center through their appearance as well as their actions. A properly attired renter, vendor or subcontractor helps create a favorable image for the Center. The PCC has an interest in having all renters, vendors or subcontractors properly attired, and therefore has established a personal appearance policy for PCC renters, vendors, or subcontractors..

1. Renters, vendors and subcontractors shall dress appropriately for the work they are performing at the Center. No renters vendor or subcontractor shall wear dungarees, “grubby” jeans, or tightly fitted slacks. Office renters, vendors and subcontractors shall present a business-like appearance.
2. No renter, vendor or subcontractor shall wear a shirt printed with words/slogans/pictures that are contrary to standards of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
3. All renters, vendors or subcontractors engaged in performing cultural arts, dealing with the public or in sight of the public shall wear authentic costumes or uniforms as provided by their various departments.
4. Women shall not wear blouses, shirts, or dresses of sheer material or that are tightly fitted.
5. Women’s blouses or dresses shall have sleeves. If the garment is made with shoulder straps of any width, then a blouse, shirt or sweater shall be worn under the outer garment.
6. Women’s necklines shall be of modest cut.
7. Women’s hemlines of dresses, skirts, shorts and culottes shall be no shorter than the top of the knee while standing.
8. Men shall not wear tank top shirts (shirts without sleeves).
9. Male renters, vendors, or subcontractors,, who as a part of their work costume do not wear shirts, shall wear a shirt while coming to work and leaving from work.
10. The attire of both men and women should always be neat and clean. Dress or manner that calls attention to itself and/or symbolizes nonconformityto the value of modesty, decency, and propriety shall be avoided. Radical departures from conventional dress or personal grooming shall not be permitted.
11. Renters, vendors or subcontractors who report to work improperly dressed or groomed, shall be asked to leave and may not return until properly attired and groomed.
12. Hair Styles and Beards
 - a. Extreme hairstyles or coloring are unacceptable.
 - b. Men’s hair shall be clean, neat, and trimmed, and must be styled so that it does not cover the ears and must be cut so as to be above the collar in the back. Long or bushy sideburns are not acceptable and should not extend below the bottom of the ear. Ponytails are not acceptable.
 - c. Men’s facial hair including beards and goatees are not acceptable. Mustaches are not encouraged, but if worn should not extend beyond the corners of the mouth, and not below the upper lip.
 - d. Women’s hair should be clean, combed and neatly arranged at all times.
